

MRS. A. E. HUNTINGTON

Of Rainsboro, Struck With Stone Thrown By an Occupant of An Automobile.

Mrs. A. E. Huntington, of Rainsboro, while driving with her husband Sunday evening was struck in the breast with a stone by an occupant of an automobile and slightly injured, besides suffering a severe nervous shock.

Rev. and Mrs. Huntington had been to the Lyle-Rittenhouse wedding, at which Mr. Huntington officiated. As they were returning to their home at Rainsboro, when they were near the residence of J. G. Redkey on the Rainsboro pike, they saw an automobile approaching. Fearing the horse would become frightened, Mrs. Huntington alighted from the buggy and walked beside the road. Just as the machine passed her, one of the occupants called out "Oh, You Kid" and threw a stone striking her in the breast, knocking her to the ground and rendering her unconscious.

While she was not seriously injured, she suffered a severe nervous shock, and is still suffering from the nervous strain.

The only explanation of the occurrence is that the occupant of the automobile was drunk. Such actions are inexcusable and disgraceful and whoever he may be every effort should be made to secure his arrest and he should then receive the extreme penalty of the law.

Up to the present time no clue as to the identity of the miscreant has been discovered.

Gross Imposition.

Manager Ayres regrets the gross imposition practiced upon the patrons of the Opera House and upon him by the management of the company that appeared at the Opera House on Thursday night. The booking agency had been sending reputable attractions and it was distinctly understood that nothing to offend would be accepted, relying upon previous experience with the agency referred to and the definite understanding concerning the class of attractions permitted to appear. That Company got in through gross misrepresentation, some thing that has not occurred before and most certainly will not occur again.

Respectfully,
FRANK AYRES, Mgr.

Cave Party.

A merry party consisting of Misses Ida Lakke, Irma Fox, Hattie Schull, Mildred Hummel, Myrtle Woodmansee, Mae Nichols, Mae Davis, Hattie Trisler, Lucia and Beatrice Davis and Harry Deltz, Walter Knapp, Wilbur Witt, Robert Kelley, J. Hamler, Geo. Cotty, Gus, Charles and Milton Lakey, of Cincinnati, came up on the traction car Sunday and were met at the depot by Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fairley with Spohn & Lemon's large automobile truck and taken to the caves, where they spent some time admiring the beautiful scenery. They returned to Mr. Fairley's home in the evening, where refreshments were served, after which they departed for their homes. Several members of the party were relatives of Mrs. Fairley.

Lyle-Rittenhouse.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Rittenhouse on Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock, Hamer Lyle and Miss Martha Rittenhouse were joined in holy wedlock, Rev. A. E. Huntington officiating.

The following guests were present to witness the ceremony: Miss Madge Rittenhouse, Mrs. Mary Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Rittenhouse, R. R. West and wife, Harry Lyle, Walter Brown and Mrs. A. E. Huntington.

The bride attired in a beautiful garment of white crepe de chine, accompanied by the groom, advanced to the marriage altar promptly at the above named hour, where they were pronounced husband and wife.

After hearty congratulations the pastor led the way to the dining room where a delicious wedding supper awaited them. The table was richly decorated with ferns and carnations.

The newly wedded couple were the recipients of a number of handsome presents of cut glass and silver.

The best wishes of all who know them are their greatest treasures.

CRIME RECORD OF THIS COUNTY

Mightbe Worse, as Indicated by the Official Figures of Clerk Shannon.

32 NEW DIVORCE CASES

Filed During the Year and Twenty Decrees Granted; 133 Cases Disposed of in Court of Common Pleas.

Clerk of Court Shannon has completed compiling the judicial statistics for the year ending June 30, 1910, and has filed the same with the secretary of state. It contains some very interesting data.

During the year only five persons were haled into court for crimes against the person in this county, two being for assault with intent to kill; three for assault and battery. There were 19 prosecutions for offenses against property: 12 being for burglary and larceny; two for forgery and one each for grand larceny, petit larceny, horse stealing, malicious destruction of property and receiving and concealing stolen property.

There was only one prosecution for violating the liquor laws. Four indictments were returned for offenses against public justice and there was one bigamy case.

The divorce statistics are both interesting and surprising. On July 1, 1909, there were 22 divorce cases pending; 3 being for adultery; 14 for absence and neglect; 5 for cruelty. During the year 32 were brought, 6 for adultery; 19 for absence and neglect; 6 cruelty; 1 drunkenness. Twenty-eight cases were decided. 4 adultery; 19 absence and neglect; 4 cruelty; 1 drunkenness. Of the 54 pending and brought during the year 27 were brought by the husband and 27 by the wife. The cases decided were as follows: 6 granted and 1 refused husband; 14 granted wife. Three cases brought by husband and four by wife were dismissed.

The amount of fines, costs and forfeited recognizances assessed was $645 of which $295 was collected. The amount of costs taxed in criminal cases was $663.98 of which $119.08 was collected.

The number of all cases pending in the Common Pleas Court on July 1, 1909 was 150 and in the Circuit Court 2. During the year 150 were filed in the Common Pleas and 4 in the Circuit Court. 133 cases were disposed of in the Common Pleas Court during the year and 4 in the Circuit, leaving 165 still pending in the Common Pleas and 2 in the Circuit.

Civil judgments were rendered in 56 cases for $9245.62.

The total amount of all jury fees was $1207.75.

During the year 8 inquests were held. 2 suicide; 3 accident; 3 cause unknown or natural.

No persons were naturalized.

Death of Charles R. Nevin.

Charles R. Nevin, a former resident of Hillsboro, but for the past twenty-five years a resident of Dayton, died at his home in that city Wednesday of last week, after a lingering illness with Bright's disease. He is survived by his widow and two brothers, Col. J. T. Nevin, of Cincinnati, and Frank E. Nevin, of Connersville, Ind. While a resident of Cincinnati he was appointed First Deputy Clerk of the United States Court during the regime of William Howard. In recent years he has been in the real estate business.

John Coffman is suffering from blood poisoning of his right hand the result of a cut received a few days while working at the foundry.

Word has been received here by friends of Rev. and Mrs. Warren B. Dunham, of Powhatan, Va., that they will go to New York City to spend the winter, where Rev. Dunham will attend the Union Theological Seminary.

Walter Curtis, of Mt. Vernon, arrived here Saturday for a short visit with friends. He and Miss Mary Evans spent Sunday at the Serpent Mound.

Are you going to buy a graphophone this fall? If you are, Joe Stabler can sell you any graphophone that is offered by the mail order houses and save you from $1.50 to $2.50 and give you just exactly the same goods that you would get from them. Let me show you.

GIVES HIMSELF UP

Man Who Stole Horse and Buggy From C. W. Fairley, Surrenders to Sheriff.

William Williamson, of Columbus, who stole a horse and buggy from Cyrus Fairley some time ago, gave himself up to the Sheriff last Friday evening.

It will be remembered that the young man took the stolen property to Sabina and sold it to a liveryman at that place the same evening for $90. After a few days search Mr. Fairley recovered the property but failed to apprehend the thief.

Nothing was heard of him until he voluntarily surrendered to the sheriff. When asked what he did with the money received from the sale of the outfit he stated that a part of it was used to pay a bill he owed and the rest was squandered here and there.

He claims his downfall was due to bad associates, who caused him to go wrong. The preliminary trial was held Tuesday before Justice J. W. Klise, who bound him over to the grand jury. In the meantime he is a resident of the county jail.

Marriage Licenses.

Hamer Myle, of Hillsboro, and Martha Rittenhouse, of Rainsboro.

Michael L. Dunger and Clara Hubig, both of Lynchburg.

Chicken Thieves Again.

Petty thieves are still busy here. They stole 12 chickens from Mrs. Mary Jane Main, who resides on Summer street, last Friday night and as usual got away without being caught. From the amount of petty thieving that is going on here the Protective Association will be very busy.

Soldiers' Reunion.

The Clinton County Soldiers Reunion will be held at New Vienna, Thursday, Oct. 6. Hon. J. B. Foraker will deliver an address at 2 p. m. New Vienna Band and Quartette will furnish music. Highland county soldiers and others are invited to join in making this a memorable reunion.

Geo. R. Conard,
Pres. C. C. Association.

First Experience.

E. L. Gomla, a justice of the peace of Salem township, tied the nuptial knot that made Wilbur Stultz, of Pulse, and Miss Louie Brewer, of Sharpsville, husband and wife, at his residence last Saturday night. This was Prof. Gomla's first experience and it is said he stood the ordeal like a veteran. Mr. and Mrs. Stultz will go to housekeeping near Pulse.

Reunion of 48th O. V. I.

The 29th annual reunion of the survivors of the 48th Regiment Ohio Veteran Volunteers will be held at the M. E. Church, Blanchester, Thursday, Sept. 29, 1910 at 10 a. m. The Martinsville Drum Corps has been engaged for the occasion. A full attendance is requested. Bring your families and invite your friends.

Presbyterian Rally Day Institute.

Next Sabbath, Sept. 25, the Presbyterian Sabbath School will hold its annual Rally Day service at 9 a. m. at which time a special program will be rendered, and an address delivered by Rev. W. H. Houston, Superintendent of Home Missions in Ohio. This message will be worth hearing and all should come out. Mr. Houston will bring with him Rev. I. N. Hauser, of Indianapolis, and Rev. C. G. Watson, of Ohio, both of them expert Sunday School workers and the three will conduct a Sunday School Institute at 2:30 p. m. in the Sunday School room of the church.

At this service questions of method in both Church and Sunday School work may be asked. A cordial invitation is given to all the good people of Hillsboro to attend, especially all teachers and workers in our sister Churches and Sunday Schools.

The benefit of the Institute is certainly open to all interested in the welfare of the Kingdom.

Rev. W. H. Houston will preach in the Presbyterian Church in the morning and Rev. I. N. Hauser in the New Market Presbyterian Church in the morning.

A popular service with several short addresses will be held in the Presbyterian Church in the evening.

Miss Lillian Cohn has been employed as commercial teacher in the High School as a supply until a regular teacher can be secured to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Prof. Condon.

Emerson--Pavey.

John R. Emerson, of St. Louis, Mo., and Mrs. Alice Pavey, of Mt. Vernon, Ill., were married Wednesday of last week. Emerson is a grand-nephew of Ralph Waldo Emerson. The bride is a daughter of Charles W. Pavey, a former resident of Hillsboro and a great-granddaughter of Rev. Isaac Pavey, the first minister authorized to solemnize marriages in this county. His authority being conferred by the County Court in 1808. Her father's first wife died here and was buried in the Old Presbyterian cemetery and it was her body which, when removed from the old cemetery, was found in a perfect state of preservation.

You are cordially invited to attend the fall opening at Berryman's Hat Shop Thursday evening, Friday and Friday evening.

A large number of the business men of this city went to Cincinnati yesterday on a special traction car, to meet President Taft and attend the Exposition.

Relatives of Will O'Connell, of New York City, received the news of his death yesterday morning. No particulars of the burial are obtainable at the time of going to press.

Ed. Bunn, of Bainbridge, and Mrs. Cusick, of Washington, Pa., are the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bunn. They attended the Exposition yesterday.

Prof. John W. Richards, who has been spending the summer here, returned Saturday to Lakeville, Conn., where he will teach again this year in the academy.

Dr. B. F. Holmes attended the Exposition at Cincinnati, last Thursday and Friday. He attended the Grand Opera at Music Hall Thursday night and pronounced it excellent.

S. D. Wheeler, of Sardinia, and Sam Ravenscroft, of this city, have formed a partnership in the sewing machine business and are known as the Singer Sewing Machine Company. They have rented the Boyd building next to West's grocery and moved their machines there yesterday. R. P. Roush, who has been selling the Singer machine for many years, retired from the business.

GOV. HARMON COMES TO FAIR

Will Deliver Address on the Morning of the First of the Three Big Days

AERIAL FEATS A FEATURE

Thursday to Be "Old Soldiers' Day" and Hon. Warren G. Harding Prospective Governor, to Speak Friday.

There is nothing to the proposition. There will be three big days at the Hillsboro Fair, Oct. 5, 6 and 7.

Gov. Harmon will positively be here on Wednesday, the first day of the fair and will deliver an address at 10 o'clock that morning. He will arrive here Tuesday night and be on the grounds at 9 o'clock the next morning. He will be compelled to leave here by noon or very shortly thereafter as he is to speak at Circleville in the afternoon.

To C. C. Muhlbach belongs the credit for getting Gov. Harmon to come here for the fair. As every one knows the governor is a very busy man at this time and very much in demand in all parts of the state. Even after the promise that he would come here had been made it was feared for a time that he would have to cancel the engagement on account of being booked for Circleville that afternoon, and it was only after Mr. Muhlbach went to Columbus Tuesday and had a conference with him and after a strong presentation of the disappointment that would be caused if he failed to come that the governor consented to come on Tuesday evening and speak on Wednesday morning.

Thursday will be "Old Soldiers' Day" and while the plans are not entirely completed for this special feature, it can be stated positively that it will be a big day. Gen. Axline, Commander in Chief of the G. A. R. of Ohio, will be present and arrangements are being made for other men of national reputation to be present.

Warren G. Harding, Republican candidate for governor, will be here on Friday and will make an address in the afternoon.

The race program will be a strong one. Mr. Richards, the secretary of the fair, says that there will be lots of horses here and the racing is certain to be spirited and very good.

Band concerts will be given each day uptown, both in the morning and at night and during the day there will always be a band on the grounds.

Balloon ascensions have come to be almost as much a part of a county fair as horse racing and there will be one each day of the Hillsboro Fair and on Wednesday there will be a triple parachute drop.

The fire works display will be on Friday night and will be worth coming miles to see. It will be equal to the ones given at the Street Exposition the last two years and any one who saw them will not miss this feature.

The displays of live stock and agricultural products are not being overlooked and as the departments are all under the directions of capable men, all of whom have had experience, will be up to the standard set by the Street Exposition.

This is going to be an old time county fair and each day is going to be so good that everyone ought to attend. Be sure and come the first day and the management feels confident that you will want to come the others days and even if you can't come again you will to it that your neighbors hear how good it is.

The management has been indefatigable in its labors in the past few weeks and as can be seen by the above attractions is going to have three big days as was promised.

William Purdy and wife, who reside in New Market township, will move within a few weeks to their property on West South street which they recently purchased of Caleb Langley.

Mrs. Susan VanWinkle fell Monday morning seriously injuring her hip. She was on an errand to one of her neighbors and entering the door, slipped and fell. Her daughters, Miss Grace, of Xenia, and Miss Haldee, of Washington C. H., are at her bedside.

Have you been talking or thinking of buying a piano? If so, let Joe Stabler show you the Richmond and Remington pianos at $250 and $325, a little down and a little every-when-in-a-while. Our terms are such that almost everybody can own a piano. Call and see me.

Rev. Kraft, of Cleveland, preached at the Christian Church Sunday morning and night and while here was entertained at the home of O. A. Landess and family.

The show last Thursday night was about as rotten as its name would indicate. But a clarinet solo by Hamlin Smith, of the opera house orchestra, was worth the price of admission.

Charles Tharp and William Holmes, comprising the municipal "white wings" department, keep the tarred streets so clean they present the appearance of asphalt.

The balance of our grocery stock at The Bee Hive must go in a very short time, in order to make room for other goods at still greater reductions in prices. All goods delivered until further notice.

Kirby Raines, trap drum expert, who arrived at home last Thursday after the closing of the summer season of the Horse Stock company, was not long disengaged. He left Tuesday for Platterville, Wis., to take a position with a theatre orchestra.

Christine Cooper, of Vine Street, was severely bitten in the face by a small Scotch terrier, while playing in her yard at her home Monday. The little girl is getting along nicely and while the wounds are painful, it is believed no serious complications will arise.

Miss Goldie Mauntel has been awarded a year's scholarship for violin by the Cincinnati College of Music. This scholarship is much coveted and was won by Miss Mauntel over one hundred other competitors and proves that she is a musician of unusual talent.

R. C. Walker will go to Norwood Saturday morning to take a position as manager of the large Erdman shoe store of that place. Mr. Walker knows the business thoroughly, as he has spent several years in the shoe stores in this city and in that time he has mastered the details of the trade. He will move to Norwood some time in the month of October.

The following members of the local Rebekah Lodge attended the Rebekah District Convention at New Vienna Tuesday. They went over in Spohn & Lemon's large automobile: Mrs. James McMullen, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Lemon, Mr. and Mrs. Clint Doggett, Mesdames Oliver McAdams, Charles Muntz, John Bayless, Carey Turner, Dick Cooper, Charles Rose, John Howard and the Misses Elma Muntz, Jessie Thornburg, Inez Morrow, Martha Purdy, Clark and Satterfield.

Diplomas Given to Graduates.

The class exercises of the graduates of the Teachers training class held at the Christian church Tuesday night, were well attended. The graduating class of 15 members were seated on the platform and were the observed of observers. The room was artistically decorated with the most beautiful flowers obtainable and many were the compliments heaped upon those, who arranged them. Mrs. Fred Pope and Miss Goldie Mauntell furnished excellent music. Both are talented musicians. Mrs. Lillie Vance recited the class poem which she composed and the "Gleaners" sang their class song, both of which were enjoyed by the large crowd present.

The class address, by Rev. Thornton of Cincinnati, was a masterly one and elicited much favorable comment from his auditors. At the close of the address, he presented the diplomas to the graduates urging them to keep up their study, of the bible.
